GENERAL BUSINESS

C.Tsintarakis reported on the situation at hand with M.Cabalies and the demands Parramatta council have made this being a control order for the removal of all birds and aviaries from M.Cabalies premises with fourteen days to comply. The ABA has convened a meeting with council this went well the ABA put forward a proposal for some birds to be reduced and some aviary compliance to take place. The council has rejected the ABAs proposal so the council left us with no choice but to engage our legal team. The ABA will not let Parramatta council set a president for other councils to follow.

Rod Young reported on the financial state to the ABA a budget to be presented next meeting and current membership list.
